

THE OHIO NEWS
BUREAU COMPANY
Cleveland, Ohio 44115
First Clipping Bureau In Ohio

The Plain Dealer
Cleveland, O. 44114
A.M.-circ. 396,931
Sun.-circ. 540,522

OCT-9--68

Mrs. W. T. Fishel Dies; Was Realtor

¹⁴⁰
Mrs. Walter T. Fishel, 54, president of Walter T. Fishel Inc., realtors from 1966, when her husband died, until last June, died Monday in Hanna House of University Hospitals.

Before Mr. Fishel died, the business was known as Walter T. Fishel Realtors and Mrs. Fishel and her husband were partners in the organization. Mrs. Fishel was a former member of the Cleveland Real Estate Board and served on one of its committees.

Mrs. Fishel, the former Martha Mandelker, was a past secretary of the Exclusive Multiple Exchange and a member of Suburban Temple and the Oakwood Club.

SHE PRESENTED a weekly radio show about women in the news and a daily program for preschool children over WHK before starting in the real estate business.

She was graduated from the Cleveland Institute of Art and had exhibited some of her paintings in the Cleveland Museum of Art May Shows.

A son, John; her mother, Mrs. Celia Mandelker, a sister and a brother survive. Her home was at 18975 Van Aken Boulevard, Shaker Heights.

Memorial services will be at Suburban Temple, 22401 Chagrin Boulevard, Beachwood, at 11:30 a.m. today.

Mrs.

Walter T. Fishel